MEMORANDUM FOR: Jennifer Gamble, Ernest J. King MHS Principal
Jackie Ferguson, District Superintendent

SUBJECT: Annual SAC Report for Ernest J. King MHS, School Year 2025-2026

FROM: Tyson Baca, SAC Chairperson

1. The Ernest J. King (EJK) SAC met four times this year, as follows:
    a. October 21, 2025
    b. December 16, 2025
    c. February 17, 2026
    d. April 21, 2026

2. The SAC members were:
    a. Tyson J. Baca, Chair
    b. Vice Chair, Katherine Rocha
    c. Secretary, Cynthia Wimberly
    d. Teacher, Leslie Barnhart
    e. Teacher, Imara Marti
    f. Student, Jude Cutler

3. The highlights and major accomplishments of the SAC this year include:
    a. Outstanding collaboration among the EJK Principal, faculty, and SAC leadership drove the success of new initiatives. Notable achievements include the Seal of Biliteracy program led by Mrs. Imara Marti, the inaugural National Technical Honor Society Career Fair spearheaded by student Luke Danjanic, and the successful facilitation of numerous events that enriched the school community.
    b. Cultivated a Responsive Feedback Loop: When SAC members and parents voiced community insights, the EJK Principal took decisive action by deploying targeted, distinct surveys to capture the perspectives of both faculty and students. EJK leadership demonstrated exceptional agility by actively listening to this data and implementing meaningful changes. Together, the SAC and school administration fostered a culture of continuous improvement, showcasing a readiness to champion new initiatives and adapt strategies to best serve the school community.
    c. Prioritized Academic Excellence and Student Support: Across multiple SAC meetings, the committee focused heavily on optimizing academic support structures. The SAC actively promoted the school's comprehensive daily tutoring framework—which includes formal, virtual, and 1-on-1 teacher options—ensuring these resources were amplified in weekly newsletters. Furthermore, the committee placed a special emphasis on advocating for student-athletes balancing rigorous academics with demanding sports schedules. This led to optimization of future athletic travel schedules to enhance student success.

4. Issues or initiatives that were unresolved and recommended for completion during the next school year include:

   Currently, there are no unresolved items from this school year. Moving forward, the SAC recommends maintaining a strong commitment to continuous improvement. We will continue to actively receive and review feedback to enact positive changes that support the success of all EJK students, administration, faculty, and staff.

5. Issues forwarded to the IAC or military chain of command include:
   a. None.

6. SAC Vacancies. List any SAC positions that will be vacated at the end of the school year: No planned vacancies.

7. SAC Parent Engagement. Parent engagement remained strong throughout the academic year, with attendance recorded at every session and a year-over-year increase in total participation. Moving forward, the SAC plans to enhance its community outreach and promotional efforts to ensure all stakeholders are aware of the committee's purpose and have clear avenues for contributing to school-wide success.

8. Other items to note: No additional items are noted for this reporting period.
